DISCOVER ART IN DOWNTOWN RENTON

Art is woven into the streets, buildings, parks, and gathering places of Downtown Renton. From colorful murals and sculptures to unexpected details tucked into the streetscape, this collection of public art offers a different way to experience the heart of the city.

As you explore, look for pieces that celebrate Renton's history, natural surroundings, industry, culture, and the many communities that call Renton home. Take your time, discover something new, and enjoy the art that makes Downtown Renton uniquely its own.

MAKE A DAY OF IT

While you are out exploring, make sure you check out the shops, grab a bite to eat, or discover your own Renton favorite!

GOOD TO KNOW

Most of the artwork featured on this map can be enjoyed from public sidewalks and outdoor spaces. Please be mindful of businesses, private property, pedestrians, and surrounding neighborhoods while exploring. Artwork may occasionally be moved, updated, or temporarily inaccessible due to construction or events.

Renton Municipal Arts Commission

Established in 1965, the Renton Municipal Arts Commission (RMAC) helps make arts and culture an important part of life in Renton. The Commission advises the City on artistic and cultural development, supports local artists and arts organizations, and helps bring creative projects, education, and public art into the community.

From murals and sculptures to community programs and events, RMAC works to make art more accessible while celebrating the creativity, diversity, and character of Renton.
